Written by Scotland's educators

Our content is written by educators from Scottish schools and colleges and draws on their subject-specific pedagogical experience and expertise.

On-campus and distance learning

Readily integrate our interactive and engaging content into in-person or remote learning. Use our resources, structured to complement SQA course specifications, to boost lesson planning and provide learners with alternative explanations and ample practice opportunities.

Any time, any place, any device

Flexible and versatile, Scholar is perfect for learning and revising. With instant feedback and motivating progress data, Scholar empowers students to catch up on, revisit and consolidate the skills, concepts and knowledge they need.

Meeting diverse needs

Scholar supports students in a wide range of circumstances and locations. Educators use Scholar to address knowledge gaps, help those who may be unable to attend campus, support students who have English as an additional language develop their English skills with our ESOL courses, and more. Students can access our comprehensive curriculum content for self-directed learning to build core understanding or for subject mastery.

Integration with NCs, HNCs and HNDs

✓ Addressing gaps

Our courses can help address gaps in prior learning or consolidate the knowledge required to progress within the structure of NCs, HNCs and HNDs.

✓ Reference tool

Our courses provide a reliable knowledge base to act as the foundation for the National School Programme, Scottish Wider Access Programme and many Higher National Units.
